

APPLICATION & OTHER DETAILS

WE WELCOME APPLICANTS FROM AROUND THE WORLD. Students come to the seminary with a variety of educational, career and spiritual backgrounds. Some acquaintance with The Christian Community or anthroposophy is expected. In most cases, applicants over the age of 28 should have a college degree or vocational training.

COST:

Fall Semester $3,500 (13 weeks)

Spring Semester $4,900 (18 weeks)

The training begins with the fall semester.

Tuition, room and weekday breakfasts are included. Fees must be paid in full at the beginning of the semester, unless arrangements to pay in monthly installments are made in advance. Scholarship funds are limited, especially in the first two semesters. Saturdays are left open for some part-time work. Students live together in a dorm situation. We will assist foreign applicants in obtaining a visa from the American General Consulate in their country. U.S. citizens should have a valid passport.

HEALTH INSURANCE: Students are responsible for their own health insurance and any medical costs. The seminary does not carry health insurance coverage for students nor can it accept any financial responsibility for students requiring medical treatment.

TO APPLY:

Please send us your name, date of birth, gender, address, telephone and/or e-mail address, along with a curriculum vitae and a biographical essay of approximately 1000 words describing your education, life experience and connection with The Christian Community.

DATES:

Fall Semester: Middle of September to the middle of December

Spring Semester: End of January to the end of May.
