Do you need to replenish your inner life? Do you want to deepen or strengthen your sacramental life in order to continue and invigorate your outer journey? To this end we will be opening some of our courses to members and friends in the form of weeklong retreats. The retreats also offer a wonderful opportunity to participate in the life of the seminary and to develop a more intimate relationship to our Movement for Religious Renewal. Come and join us!

THE SEMINARY OF THE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY IN SPRING VALLEY, NY

Retreats, Open Courses

Our whole life is an act of worship. In ordinary life, we serve like priests at the altar.

The Program

The program will vary, depending on its length and location. It will include the celebration of the Act of Consecration of Man, some shared meals, gospel or some other study, conversation and artistic activity in addition to the morning or evening main course.

How to Know, Confront, and Work with Evil

For centuries, men and women have tried either to eradicate evil, or else deny its existence. In spite of these efforts, the twentieth century unleashed evil on a scale that humanity had never before seen nor experienced. In our century, it is no longer possible to ignore these powers, or simply to project them onto other individuals, groups, or some alien "Axis of Evil." In this course we will explore ways in which we can meet destructive forces, so that they grow, not from bad to worse, but from bad to good.

The Sermon on the Mount

The Sermon on the Mount has often been considered a compendium of Christian ethics. While this is not wrong, the Sermon is more. At the end it is said that He speaks with "authority". The Greek word is "exusia" which points to the power of which Genesis speaks as the power of creation. - Can we come to experience the Sermon on the Mount as an act of creation?

Observation of Nature: Practice Exercises with Plants

Rudolf Steiner suggested several approaches to unlocking the spiritual within Nature. At one end of the spectrum are direct descriptions of the activities of spiritual beings, at the other exercises in how to observe – mainly plants – natural objects, as a first step to the other pole. The basic key is to work first on these outer Forms and let the soul relate them one to another to reveal the Metamorphosis behind them (something already supersensible!). A further stage is to grasp the cause of this metamorphosis through studying its outer Gesture. By working from both poles towards the center, we reach into the activities of the spirit within the outer world.

Sophia, the Holy Spirit and the Divine Feminine

What stands behind all the various ways the term "Maria-Sophia" is understood today? This question will require us to consider the evolution of wisdom, the history of human perception, the evolution of consciousness, church history and the roles played by the masculine and feminine poles of cosmic and human being.

James Hindes

Our life is an apprenticeship to the truth.... No facts to me are sacred; none are profane; I simply experiment, an endless seeker...the coming only is sacred. Nothing is secure but life, transition, the emerging spirit. - R.W. Emerson
